

Question and Answer Number 2.

Question

Answer:

The Etchells Class rules say in the introduction "If these rules do not say you can, then you cannot" and therefore anything not named in section C of these rules is not allowed to be on board the boat during racing.

As a consequence, the International Jury can confirm that mobile phones must not be carried on the water during racing.

International Jury
Etchells Class World Championships 2022