Sailing Instructions

6 COURSES AND MARKS

6.3 Description of each course (See also course diagrams below) is replaced with:

Windward A

Windward B

No Gybe

Windward-Leeward Course A:

A three-mark course, windward with an offset mark (leave both to port), leeward gate, finish to windward. Prior to the start, the race committee may announce that there will be no offset mark and/or a leeward mark instead of a gate. If there is a leeward mark instead of a gate, that mark shall be rounded to port.

Windward-Leeward Course B:

A two-, three-, four- or five-legged course. Leave all weather marks and offsets to port. The offset must be observed each time the weather mark is rounded. Prior to the start, the race committee may announce that there will be no offset mark and/or a leeward mark instead of a gate. If there is a leeward mark instead of a gate, that mark shall be rounded to port.

No- Gybe Course:

A four mark course, 1 windward (leave to port), 2 leeward (leave to starboard), 3 windward (leave to starboard), 4 leeward (leave to port), and finish to windward.

8 THE START

8.2 Is replaced with:

The starting & finish line will be between a staff displaying an orange flag on the signal vessel and a staff displaying an orange flag on the port end. The staff on the port end of the starting line may be set on a stationary pin boat.

10 THE FINISH

10.1 Delete The finish line.
