NOTICE OF RACE

CHANGES 2

Modifications to HPR class rules for the 2013 Big Boat Series:

- 1) The following HPR rules, as posted on the HPR website shall apply:
  - Version V3a of the HPR rulebook.
  - Version V4f1 of the calculator spreadsheet applies.
  - Should there be a conflict the calculator spreadsheet shall prevail.
- 2) HPR entries must declare a maximum crew weight for purposes of certificate calculation, along with all other relevant measurement data by Sept 18, 2013. This may be any figure, as the declared crew weight is used to calculate the rating for the certificate. Any subsequent substitutions in crew must still conform to the declared weight limit.
- 3) Each HPR entry must complete a crew list, and this list may not change for any race without express permission of the Organizing Authority.
- 4) Crews may include a media representative, approved by StFYC and the class, for gathering still or video images aboard a boat while racing, or an owner or guest approved by the class. This person shall not be counted with the crew maximum weight limit and shall not be involved with enhancing the performance of the boat (except for hiking). This person does not have to be on board for all races during the event.
- 5) All sails to be used during racing in the HPR Class shall be on board before the start of the first race of the day, and no changes shall be made to this inventory during the remainder of the race day.
